Summit Conquest in Sportgastein

Famous for its high elevations, the ski area in Sportgastein serves up incredible views of the surrounding mountain peaks. And it has never been easier to conquer a summit: The summit cross on the Kreuzkogel (2,686 m) is just a few minutes' walk from the mountain lift station of Goldbergbahn. You can ride the gondola up the mountain, and then it's just a matter of a few steps out through the snow to the summit cross, where you can take in the spectacular views of over 400 alpine peaks. After the obligatory summit photo, you enjoy a nice skiing day or go comfortable with the lift into the valley again.
